SHELF CARD

National Society of New England Women

CONSTITUTION.

ADOPTED APRIL 18, 1914.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This organization shall be called the "National Society New England Women."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object of the society shall be to promote intellectual and social intercourse among its members, to bring together and assist women who were born and brought up in New England, or are descended from New Englanders.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. Every member admitted by the National Board of Directors shall be a member of the National Society and receive a National number whether joining through the Colonies or through the National Society, in which latter case she shall be called member at large.

Members at large shall be those not members of colonies, and from sections where there are no established colonies. These shall be elected in the same manner as the Colony members. They shall have voting privileges according to the Constitution, but cannot hold office.

Members at large shall be limited to 200.

Section 2. Eligibility.

a. Any woman of American parentage over 18 years of age who was born in New England and both of whose parents were born in New England is eligible for membership in this society.

b. If not of New England birth, she must represent through both parents at least two generations of New England ancestry, or she must represent through one parent at least three generations of New England ancestry.

c. New England birth on the part of an applicant shall count as one generation.

d. An applicant descended from a pioneer, who became a permanent settler in New England prior to 1645, shall have the privilege of counting said pioneer as representing one generation.

Section 3. All associate members in good standing at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall be accorded all the privileges of active membership except that of holding office.

Section 4. Admission. The name of an applicant for membership shall be proposed and vouched for by one member of the National Society, and seconded by another, on two blanks to be furnished by the Chairman of the National Membership Committee. After being accepted by a two-thirds vote in the Membership Committee and a majority vote in the Board of Directors, the National Chairman shall send one blank to the Chairman of Membership Committee of the Colony from which the application came, and the other to the Registrar General for filing.

Section 5. Resignations.

a. The resignation of a Member whose dues for the current year have been paid, may be accepted on a majority vote of the National Membership Committee, and she may return the badge of the National Society for which half the cost shall be refunded.

b. A Member whose resignation has been accepted may, upon application, resume her old number and standing by a two-thirds vote in the National Membership Committee and the payment of $2.00.

c. Members at large in good standing may be transferred to a Colony.

Section 6. Discipline. Any member may be suspended or expelled for cause, by a vote of three-fourths of all the members of the National Board of Directors, one month's previous notice having been given to the member, with a copy of the charges preferred against her, and the date on which she is entitled to answer these charges, if she so desires.

ARTICLE IV.

FEES AND DUES.

Section 1. Colony Dues.

a. No Colony shall pay less than $5.00 annual dues.

b. The annual dues of each Colony numbering over 50 members shall be ten cents for every member up to 100, and five dollars ($5.00) for every additional hundred or fraction thereof.

c. One dollar registration fee for each new Colony member shall be sent to the National Society for its support and the formation of new Colonies.

Section 2. The initiation fee of a Member at large (Non-Colony) in the National Society shall be two dollars and the annual dues one dollar.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

Section 1. The officers of the National Society shall be President General, a First Vice President General, a Second Vice President General, a Recording Secretary General, a Corresponding Secretary General, a Treasurer General and a Registrar General.

These officers shall be elected by ballot biennially, by vote of the majority of the delegates present and voting at the Annual Congress. No member shall be eligible to hold office in the National Society until she has been a Colony member two years.

Section 2. The President of each Colony shall be an Honorary Vice President of the National Society during her term of office. The Honorary Vice Presidents may serve as delegates from their respective Colonies and shall be entitled to vote.

Section 3. Duties of Officers. President General. The President General shall preside at all meetings of the National Society and of the Board of Directors and perform all duties pertaining to her office.

She shall sign all written obligations of the National Society, which have been authorized or approved by the Board of Directors, shall appoint the Auditor, and shall be ex officio a member of all committees.

Section 4. The Vice Presidents General in the order of their ranks shall assume the duties and responsibilities of the President General in her absence, or upon her inability to perform the duties of her office.

Section 5. The Recording Secretary General shall keep a record of the meetings of the National Society and of its Board of Directors, shall notify all those elected or appointed to offices and chairmanships, have charge of the seal and affix it to documents as authorized by the Board of Directors, and perform all duties pertaining to her office.

Section 6. The Corresponding Secretary General shall attend to the correspondence of the National Society and of its Board of Directors, give notice of all meetings of the National Society and of the Board of Directors, and perform such other duties as may be assigned to her by the Society, the Board, or the President General.

Section 7. The Treasurer General shall be the custodian of the funds of the National Society and shall deposit them in the name of the National Society in such bank or banks as the Board of Directors shall approve and endorse, collect fees and dues and shall pay all bills approved by the Board of Directors if signed by the President General and countersigned by the Recording Secretary General. The accounts of the Treasurer General shall be audited annually.

Section 8. The Registrar General shall keep a register of the names and dates of admission of all members of the National Society and of the Colonies and shall keep on file duplicate application blanks of members admitted. She shall confer with the Chairman of the National Membership Committee regarding any changes in the membership roll by death, removal, marriage or resignation.

ARTICLE VI.

NATIONAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Section 1. The Seven Officers General and eight other elected members shall constitute the National Board of Directors.

The officers of the National Society shall be the officers of the National Board of Directors. This Board shall meet at least twice a year, or at the call of the President General. At the written request of twenty-five members representing any five Colonies a meeting of the National Society may be called.

Section 2. The National Board of Directors, shall carry out the instructions of the National Society. Between the meetings of the National Society the Executive Board shall have charge of all business and affairs of the Society with power to act in all emergencies. It shall fill vacancies in office for unexpired terms and do whatever is necessary for the good of the Society.

Section 3. The President General shall appoint Chairmen of Standing and Special Committees, Inspectors and Tellers. These appointments should be ratified by the Board of Directors.

Each Chairman shall form her own committee subject to the approval of the President General.

Section 4. There shall be two Honorary members of the National Board, the Founder and the Minister, who shall be notified of the meetings of the Board.

ARTICLE VII.

MEETINGS.

Section 1. The National Society of New England Women shall meet annually in Convention during the week of April 12th.

The Headquarters shall be in New York City.

At the Annual Congress all necessary business shall be transacted, elections take place and annual reports presented.

Section 2. The Congress and other meetings may be held anywhere in the United States.

Each Colony should be represented at the Annual Congress by ten delegates including its officers.

An alternate should be elected for each delegate.

Only Colonies whose dues are paid are entitled to representation. Members at large shall be entitled to one Delegate and one Alternate for every ten members.

Section 3. At the Annual Congress of the National Society, ten delegates representing at least five Colonies shall constitute a quorum.

The voting body shall consist of the Officers General and the Board of Directors, the Delegates from each Colony and from the Members at large.

Section 4. Proxies shall be sent from the National Society for Delegates and Alternates to personally sign and return for their vote, in case of their enforced absence from Congress.

Section 5. Colony Day shall be held during the week of the National Congress.

ARTICLE VIII.

ELECTIONS.

Section 1. Nominations. Two months before the Annual Congress the Board of Directors shall appoint a Nominating Committee of not less than five members representing five Colonies. Nominees for office must be sent to the Chairman of this Committee. From names so received the Committee shall prepare a ticket. A candidate in order to be eligible for the ticket must have received nominations from at least three Colonies. Two weeks before the Annual Congress, if the Committee has not received a sufficient number of nominations, it will be at liberty to form or complete a ticket by majority votes in the Committee. Nominations may be made from the floor. Any Colony or Member at large may send nominations to this Committee.

Section 2. The Officers General and Directors shall be elected by ballot biennially at the Congress and shall hold office until their successors are installed. An Officer General cannot hold two offices at the same time. See special rules.

Section 3. The term of office of the President General, the First Vice President General, the Recording Secretary General, the Treasurer General and the four Directors receiving the highest number of votes shall be for two years.

The four Directors receiving the next highest number of votes shall be for one year, the Second Vice President General, the Corresponding Secretary General, and Registrar General for one year.

The years following the first election, all Officers General and Directors of the National Board shall be elected for terms of two years.

The fiscal year of the Society shall begin December 19th, at which time bills for dues shall be sent by the Treasurer General to all Colonies.

ARTICLE IX.

COLONIES.

Section 1. Colonies of the National Society of New England Women may be formed with the co-operation of the National Chairman of Colonies in any town or city with not less than five eligible members. Each Colony shall be called "National Society New England Women" (place represented) Colony.

The eligibility for membership in the Colonies shall agree with that required by the National Society.

Section 2. Colonies may frame their own By-laws, but they must not conflict with the Constitution of the National Society, which is the standard for both the National Society and its Colonies.

Section 3. Each Colony shall control its funds, be responsible for its debts and fix its fees and dues in accordance with this Constitution.

ARTICLE X.

SEAL AND INSIGNIA.

Section 1. Seal. The Seal of the National Society shall be two and one-quarter inches in diameter. The design shall be six shields upon which shall appear the emblems from the coats of arms of the six New England States, raised on a belt or garter. A stalk of Indian corn representing the principal source of sustenance of the early colonists shall be placed across the belt between the shields.

The stalk shall be tied with a ribbon which shall bear the following words: "National Society New England Women." The whole shall be surrounded by an ornamental rim on which shall appear the following words: "Organized January 24, 1895. Incorporated March 4, 1895." This seal shall be kept by the Recording Secretary General and used only by the Presiding and Recording Officers.

Section 2. Insignia. The Insignia of the National Society shall be a gold badge one inch in diameter, the design being the same as that of the Seal, omitting the outer rim with the date of organization and incorporation. The belt and shields shall be made of Roman gold, the corn stalk of green gold and the ribbons of white enamel. The society number of each member shall be engraved on the back of the badge.

The badge shall be attached to a ribbon of red and white, the early New England colors, depending from a small gold pin. All members shall have the right to wear the Insignia of the Society.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may be amended at the Annual Congress in April, or at any special meeting called for the purpose, provided that such amendments are sent to the National Board of Directors and a copy to each Colony, for their consideration one month before the meeting. When presented at the meeting a two-thirds' vote of the delegates present will be required to amend the Constitution.

SPECIAL RULES.

1. The official installation of officers in the National Society shall take place at the annual Congress.

2. If at any election in the National Society, or in a Colony, there should be a tie vote for two or more candidates, preference should be given the member whose admission to the Society bears the earliest date.

3. The National Society requires a fee of one dollar for registration when a member is transferred to a Colony, but a member is not required to pay initiation fee when transferred.

4. A member having resigned from a Colony, wishing to become a member at large must pay two dollars the first year and one dollar a year thereafter.

5. Life membership certificates can be arranged for if a sufficient number of members apply.

6. The board of directors will meet regularly on the first Saturday of each month from October until May.

7. Colonies should elect their delegates and alternates at their January meetings and should notify the President General of any change in officers during the year.

STATEMENT.

Several exceptions to the regular rules have been necessary during the first fiscal year of newly officered organization. Therefore; certain precedents having already been established in several Colonies, these special rules can be accepted as By-laws at the next Congress if found to work out to the satisfaction of the Colonies.

By order of

SARA L. W. COE,

President General, N. S. N. E. W.

By-Laws

of the

Chicago Colony of New England Women

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This organization shall be called the Chicago Colony of New England Women.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object of the Colony shall be to perpetuate the memory of illustrious New Englanders; to bind together by ties of common interest women born in New England or of New England ancestry; to aid and encourage New England women who may be in need; and to instill in the hearts of rising generations love for and pride in New England history.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Any woman may become a member of the Chicago Colony under the eligibility rules of the National Society as quoted above, provided she is acceptable to the Colony.

SEC. 2. Election to Membership. A candidate for membership shall be proposed by one member and vouched for by another, one of whom must have had personal acquaintance with the candidate for at least a year. Membership blanks shall be obtained from and returned to the Chairman of the Membership Committee. At the time the blank is returned the initiation fee and the dues for the current year shall be sent to the Assistant Treasurer. The filled blank shall be examined by the members of the Membership Committee, and upon the unanimous vote of the Committee for acceptance of the candidate, her application shall be presented to the Board of Managers, and unless three votes are cast against it in the board, the Chairman of the Membership Committee shall present it at the next regular meeting of the Colony, when it shall be voted upon by ballot, and unless five negative votes be cast, the candidate shall be declared elected, subject to the approval of the National Society. After acceptance by the National Society, the Chairman of the Membership Committee shall notify the candidate of her election.

SEC. 3. Membership by Transfer. The eligibility and standing of a member of another colony applying for membership in the Chicago Colony by transfer shall be vouched for in writing by the President of the other colony.

No one shall be accepted by transfer until a copy of her original membership paper is in possession of the Membership Committee.

SEC. 4. Any member may become a non-resident member provided her permanent residence is 150 miles or more from the City of Chicago. Such members to pay annual dues of two dollars ($2.00). Such members shall not vote nor speak to a motion.

ARTICLE IV.

DUES.

SECTION 1. The initiation fee shall be one dollar.

SEC. 2. The annual dues shall be five dollars, payable in advance before the day of the annual meeting. Failure to prepay the dues shall deprive the member of the right to vote at the annual meeting. Membership of delinquent members shall be declared forfeited by the board, provided, notices have been mailed to delinquent members, thirty and sixty days after the annual meeting. A member may be reinstated by the board upon payment of all back dues. No resignation shall be accepted until after payment of dues for the current year. A member admitted by transfer must pay the annual dues, but no initiation fee.

SEC. 3. The financial year shall be from annual meeting to annual meeting.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS AND MANAGERS.

SECTION 1. Board of Managers. The Board of Managers shall consist of seven officers and five managers. The Board shall have full control of the affairs and funds of the Society. The Board may fill vacancies in its own membership by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

SEC. 2. Officers. The officers shall be a President, a first and a second Vice President, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer and an Assistant Treasurer. They shall hold office for one year or until the installation of their successors.

SEC. 3. Nomination and Election. Nomination and election of officers and managers shall take place at the annual meeting. The President shall appoint five tellers. A candidate for election shall not be a teller. Nominations shall be made only from the floor. Officers shall be nominated and elected one by one. Election shall be by ballot. A majority vote shall elect.

Managers shall be nominated from the floor. Five shall be voted for on one ballot and a plurality vote shall elect. In case of a tie vote the ballot must be re-cast.

ARTICLE VI.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Colony and of the Board, and shall be ex officio a member of every committee, and shall perform the duties usually pertaining to her office.

SEC. 2. The first and second Vice President in the order of her rank shall, in the absence of the President, assume her duties. The first Vice President shall be Chairman of the Membership Committee. The second Vice President shall be Chairman of the Social Committee.

SEC. 3. The Recording Secretary shall keep the minutes of the Colony and of the Board; shall have custody of the books and papers; shall keep a correct roll of membership and a list of all committees; shall sign all the written obligations of the Colony; shall give a report at the annual meeting and perform the duties usually devolving upon a Recording Secretary. She shall be Chairman of the Printing Committee.

SEC. 4. The Corresponding Secretary shall mail notices for all meetings of the Colony and of the Board; and shall send notices to all chairmen of standing committees.

SEC. 5. The Treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds of the Colony and shall deposit them in the name of the Colony in a bank designated by the Board of Managers. She shall also be the custodian of the trust fund of the Colony. She shall collect all dues after those of the first year; shall keep itemized accounts; shall present an itemized report at each meeting of the Board; shall present her books for inspection whenever requested by the Auditing Committee, and shall present at the annual meeting a full and audited report of the financial condition of the Society. She shall send notices to members delinquent in the payment of dues, thirty and sixty days after the annual meeting. She shall pay bills only after they have been signed by the member who contracted them, and have been approved by the Board of Managers.

SEC. 6. The Assistant Treasurer shall have the custody of the money advanced by applicants for membership previous to their election, and after they become members she shall transfer to the Treasurer the money thus advanced. She shall refund to an applicant failing of election, the money advanced by her.

ARTICLE VII.

MEETINGS.

SECTION 1. The annual meeting of the Colony shall be held upon the fourth Thursday in March.

SEC. 2. Colony Day shall be celebrated April eleventh.

SEC. 3. Regular meetings of the Colony shall be held upon the fourth Thursday of the months from October to March, inclusive.

SEC. 4. In case any of these meetings shall fall upon Sunday or a holiday, the Board of Managers is authorized to make any change it sees fit.

SEC. 5. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held upon the Tuesday preceding the regular meeting of the Colony.

SEC. 6. Special meetings of the Colony may be called by the President or by the Board, and shall be called upon the written request of ten members of the Colony.

SEC. 7. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President, and shall be called by her, upon the written request of three members of the Board.

SEC. 8. Members present at business meetings of the Colony and of the Board shall constitute a quorum, provided written notice of such meetings has been sent to all the members.

ARTICLE VIII.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

SECTION 1. The Chairmen of all standing committees except as previously provided for, shall be appointed by the Board. Each chairman shall form her own committee from the membership subject to the approval of the Board. The President may fill vacancies in chairmanships, occurring between meetings of the Board.

Every standing committee shall report to the Colony annually.

The standing committees of the Colony shall be as follows:

SEC. 2. A Membership Committee. Its chairman shall be the First Vice President. Its duties shall be as outlined in Article III.

SEC. 3. A Social Committee. Its chairman the second Vice President. It shall secure places of meetings for the Board and for the Colony and see that such things are provided as may be required. It shall attend to the admission of members and guests by ticket at all meetings whether business or social. It shall introduce strangers to the officers and members.

Sec. 4. A Programme Committee. It shall prepare programmes for the literary meetings of the Society. It shall consult with the hostess and with the social committee.

Sec. 5. A Ways and Means Committee. It shall devise and propose methods of increasing the funds of the Society.

Sec. 6. A Printing Committee. Its chairman shall be the Recording Secretary. It shall supervise all printing for the Colony; shall purchase all stationery, and other necessary supplies; shall give them out to officers and committees as required, and shall keep an itemized account of such supplies and of their disposition and present such account to the Board at each meeting.

Sec. 7. A Press Committee. It shall supply the press with notices of the meetings and entertainments of the Colony, shall receive the representatives of the press and give them such information as may be thought desirable.

Sec. 8. A Records Committee. Its chairman shall be the Corresponding Secretary. It shall take charge of the Colony's book containing its By-laws and secure therein the signatures of all members in the order of their Colony numbers. The committee shall report to the Board at each meeting the names of new members who have entered their signatures.

It shall keep and continue the Colony's scrap-book, placing in it such material as the majority of the committee may consider worthy of preservation.

Sec. 9. An Auditing Committee. It shall audit all accounts of the Colony, before acceptance by the Board.

Sec. 10. A Philanthropy Committee. Its members shall be the President and Ex-Presidents of the Colony. Ten per cent of all annual dues shall be devoted to the purposes of this committee, and placed in a trust fund by the Treasurer, to be drawn upon only by order of this committee.

Each member is expected to contribute at least one dollar to the Philanthropy Fund.

ARTICLE IX.

GOVERNMENT.

All meetings shall be governed by "Roberts Rules of Order."

ARTICLE X.

AMENDMENTS.

These By-laws may be amended at any regular meeting of the Colony by a two-thirds vote of the active members present, provided the proposed amendment has been previously approved by two-thirds of the Board of Managers, and that a copy of the amendment has been sent to all members two or more weeks preceding the meeting at which it is to be acted upon.

National Society of New England Women

CONSTITUTION.

ADOPTED APRIL 18, 1914.

ARTICLE. I.

NAME.

This organization shall be called the "National Society New England Women."

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object of the society shall be to promote intellectual and social intercourse among its members, to bring together and assist women who were born and brought up in New England, or are descended from New Englanders.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1. Every member admitted by the National Board of Directors shall be a member of the National Society and receive a National number whether joining through the Colonies or through the National Society, in which latter case she shall be called member at large.

Members at large shall be those not members of colonies, and from sections where there are no established colonies. These shall be elected in the same manner as the Colony members. They shall have voting privileges according to the Constitution, but cannot hold office.

Members at large shall be limited to 200.

Section 2. Eligibility.

a. Any woman of American parentage over 18 years of age who was born in New England and both of whose parents were born in New England is eligible for membership in this society.

b. If not of New England birth, she must represent through both parents at least two generations of New England Ancestry, or she must represent through one parent at least three generations of New England ancestry.

c. New England birth on the part of an applicant shall count as one generation.

d. An applicant descended from a pioneer, who became a permanent settler in New England prior to 1645, shall have the privilege of counting said pioneer as representing one generation.

Section 3. All associate members in good standing at the time of the adoption of this Constitution, shall be accorded all the privileges of active membership except that of holding office.

Section 4. Admission. The name of an applicant for membership shall be proposed and vouched for by one member of the National Society, and seconded by another, on two blanks to be furnished by the Chairman of the National Membership Committee. After being accepted by a two-thirds vote in the Membership Committee and a majority vote in the Board of Directors, the National Chairman shall send one blank to the Chairman of Membership Committee of the Colony from which the application came, and the other to the Registrar General for filing.

Section 5. Resignations.

a. The resignation of a Member whose dues for the current year have been paid may be accepted on a majority vote of the National Membership Committee, and she may return the badge of the National Society for which half the cost shall be refunded.

b. A Member whose resignation has been accepted may, upon application, resume her old number and standing by a two-thirds vote in the National Membership Committee and the payment of $2.00.

c. Members at large in good standing may be transferred to a Colony.

Section 6. Discipline. Any member may be suspended or expelled for cause, by a vote of three-fourths of all the members of the National Board of Directors, one month's previous notice having been given to the member, with a copy of the charges preferred against her, and the date on which she is entitled to answer these charges, if she so desires.

ARTICLE IV.

FEES AND DUES.

Section 1. Colony Dues.

a. No Colony shall pay less than $5.00 annual dues.

b. The annual dues of each Colony numbering over 50 members shall be ten cents for every member up to 100, and five dollars ($5.00) for every additional hundred or fraction thereof.

c. One dollar registration fee for each new Colony member shall be sent to the National Society for its support and the formation of new Colonies.

Section 2. The initiation fee of a Member at large (Non-Colony) in the National Society shall be two dollars and the annual dues one dollar.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS AND THERE DUTIES.

Section 1. The officers of the National Society shall be President General, a First Vice President General, a Second Vice President General, a Recording Secretary General, a Corresponding Secretary General, a Treasurer General and a Registrar General.

These officers shall be elected by ballot biennially, by vote of the majority of the delegates present and voting at the Annual Congress. No member shall be eligible to hold office in the National Society until she has been a Colony member two years.

Section 2. The President of each Colony shall be an Honorary Vice President of the National Society during her term of office. The Honorary Vice Presidents may serve as delegates from their respective Colonies and shall be entitled to vote.

Section 3. Duties of Officers. President General. The President General shall preside at all meetings of the National Society and of the Board of Directors and perform all duties pertaining to her office.

She shall sign all written obligations of the National Society, which have been authorized or approved by the Board of Directors, shall appoint the Auditor, and shall be ex officio a member of all committees.

Section 4. The Vice Presidents General in the order of their ranks shall assume the duties and responsibilities of the President General in her absence, or upon her inability to perform the duties of her office.

Section 5. The Recording Secretary General shall keep a record of the meetings of the National Society and of its Board of Directors, shall notify all those elected or appointed to offices and chairmanships, have charge of seal and affix it to documents as authorized by the Board of Directors, and perform all duties pertaining to her office.

Section 6. The Corresponding Secretary General shall attend to the correspondence of the National Society and of its Board of Directors, give notice of all meetings of the National Society and of the Board of Directors, and perform such other duties as may be assigned to her by the Society, the Board, or the President General.

Section 7. The Treasurer General shall be the custodian of the funds of the National Society and shall deposit them in the name of the Nationl Society in such bank or banks as the Board of Directors shall approve and endorse, collect fees and dues and shall pay all bills approved by the Board of Directors if signed by the President General and countersigned by the Recording Secretary General. The accounts of the Treasurer General shall be audited annually.

Section 8. The Registrar General shall keep a register of the names and dates of admission of all members of the National Society and of the Colonies and shall keep on file duplicate application blanks of members admitted. She shall confer with the Chairman of the National Membership Committee regarding any changes in the membership roll by death, removal, marriage or resignation.

ARTICLE VI.

NATIONAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Section 1. The Seven Officers General and eight other elected members shall constitute the National Board of Directors.

The Officers of the National Society shall be the officers of the National Board of Directors. This Board shall meet at least twice a year, or at the call of the President General. At the written request of twenty-five members representing any five Colonies a meeting of the National Society may be called.

Section 2. The National Board of Directors, shall carry out the instructions of the National Society. Between the meetings of the National Society, the Executive Board shall have charge of all business and affairs of the Society with power to act in all emergencies. It shall fill vacancies in office for unexpired terms and do whatever is necessary for the good of the Society.

Section 3. The President General shall appoint Chairmen of Standing and Special Committees, Inspectors and Tellers. These appointments should be ratified by the Board of Directors.

Each Chairman shall form her own committee subject to the approval of the President General.

Section 4. There shall be two Honorary members of the National Board, the Founder and the Minister, who shall be notified of the meetings of the Board.

ARTICLE VII.

MEETINGS.

Section 1. The National Society of New England Women shall meet annually in Convention during the week of April 12th.

The Headquarters shall be in New York City.

At the Annual Congress all necessary business shall be transacted, elections take place and annual reports presented.

Section 2. The Congress and other meetings may be held anywhere in the United States.

Each Colony should be represented at the Annual Congress by ten delegates including its officers.

An alternate should be elected for each delegate.

Only Colonies whose dues are paid are entitled to representation. Members at large shall be entitled to one Delegate and one Alternate for every ten members.

Section 3. At the Annual Congress of the National Society. ten delegates representing at least five Colonies shall constitute a quorum.

The voting body shall consist of the Officers General and the Board of Directors, the Delegates from each Colony and from the Members at large.

Section 4. Proxies shall be sent from the National Society for Delegates and Alternates to personally sign and return for their vote, in case of their enforced absence from Congress.

Section 5. Colony Day shall be held during the week of the National Congress.

ARTICLE VIII.

ELECTIONS.

Section 1. Nominations. Two months before the Annual Congres the Board of Directors shall appoint a Nominating Committee of not less than five members representing five Colonies. Nominees for office must be sent to the Chairman of this Committee. From names so received the Committee shall prepare a ticket. A candidate in order to be eligible for the ticket must have received nominations from at least three Colonies. Two weeks before the Annual Congress, if the Committee has not received a sufficient number of nominations, it will be at liberty to form or complete a ticket by majority votes in the Committee. Nominations may be made from the floor. Any Colony or Member at large may send nominations to this Committee.

Section 2. The Officers General and Directors shall be elected by ballot biennially at the Congres and shall hold office until their successors are installed. An Officer General cannot hold two offices at the same time. See special rules.

Section 3. The term of office of the President General, the First Vice President General, the Recording Secretary General, the Treasurer General and the four Directors receiving the highest number of votes shall be for two years.

The four Directors receiving the next highest number of votes shall be for one year, the Second Vice President General, the Corresponding Secretary, General, and Registrar General for one year.

The years following the first election, all Officers General and Directors of the National Board shall be elected for terms of two years.

The fiscal year of the Society shall begin December 19th, at which time bills for dues shall be sent by the Treasurer General to all Colonies.

ARTICLE IX.

COLONIES.

Section 1. Colonies of the National Society of New England Women may be formed with the co-operation of the National Chairman of Colonies in any town or city with not less than five eligible members. Each Colony shall be called "National Society New England Women (place represented) Colony."

The eligibility for membership in the Colonies shall agree with that required by the National Society.

Section 2. Colonies may frame their own By-laws, but they must not conflict with the Constitution of the National Society, which is the standard for both the National Society and its Colonies.

Section 3. Each Colony shall control its funds, be responsible for its debts and fix its fees and dues in accordance with this Constitution.

ARTICLE X.

SEAL AND INSIGNIA.

Section 1. Seal. The Seal of the National Society shall be two and one-quarter inches in diameter. The design shall be six shields upon which shall appear the emblems from the coats of arms of the six New England States, raised on a belt or garter. A stalk of Indian corn representing the principal source of sustenance of the early colonists shall be placed across the belt between the shields.

The stalk shall be tied with a ribbon which shall bear the following words: "National Society New England Women." The whole shall be surrounded by an ornamental rim on which shall appear the following words: "Organized January 24, 1895. Incorporated March 4, 1895." This seal shall be kept by the Recording Secretary General and used only by the Presiding and Recording Officers.

Section 2. Insignia. The Insignia of the National Society shall be a gold badge one inch in diameter, the design being the same as that of the Seal, omitting the outer rim with the date of organization and incorporation. The belt and shields shall be made of Roman gold, the corn stalk of green gold and the ribbons of white enamel. The society number of each member shall be engraved on the back of the badge.

The badge shall be attached to a ribbon of red and white, the early New England colors, depending from a small gold pin. All members shall have the right to wear the Insignia of the Society.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may be amended at the Annual Congress in April, or at any special meeting called for the purpose, provided that such amendments are sent to the National Board of Directors and a copy to each Colony, for their consideration one month before the meeting. When presented at the meeting a two-thirds' vote of the delegates present will be required to amend the Constitution.

SPECIAL RULES.

1. The official installation of officers in the National Society shall take place at the annual Congress.

2. If at any election in the National Society, or in a Colony there should be a tie vote for two or more candidates, preference should be given the member whose admission to the Society bears the earliest date.

3. The National Society requires a fee of one dollar for registration when a member is transferred to a Colony, but a member is not required to pay initiation fee when transferred.

4. A member having resigned from a Colony, wishing to become a member at large must pay two dollars the first year and one dollar a year thereafter.

5. Life membership certificates can be arranged for if a sufficient number of members apply.

6. The board of directors will meet regularly on the first Saturday of each month from October until May.

7. Colonies should elect their delegates and alternates at their January meetings and should notify the President General of any change in officers during the year.

STATEMENT.

Several exceptions to the regular rules have been necessary during the first fiscal year of newly officered organization. Therefore; certain precedents having already been established in several Colonies, these special rules can be accepted as By-laws at the next Congress if found to work out to the satisfaction of the Colonies.

By order of

SARA L. W. COE,
President General, N. S. N. E. W.

By-Laws

of the

Chicago Colony of New England Women

By-Laws

of the

Chicago Colony of New England Women

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This organization shall be called the Chicago Colony of New England Women.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

The object of the Colony shall be to perpetuate the memory of illustrious New Englanders; to bind together by ties of common interest women born in New England or of New England ancestry; to aid and encourage New England women whom may be in need; and to instill in the hearts of rising generations love for and pride in New England history.

NATIONAL SOCIETY OF NEW ENGLAND WOMEN.

MEMBERSHIP.

Eligibility Clause.

a. Any woman of American parentage over 18 years of age who was born in New England and both of whose parents were born in New England is eligible for membership in this society.

b. If not of New England birth, she must represent through both parents at least two generations of New England Ancestry, or she must represent through one parent at least three generations of New England ancestry.

c. New England birth on the part of an applicant shall count as one generation.

d. An applicant descended from a pioneer, who became a permanent settler in New England prior to 1645, shall have the privilege of counting said pioneer as representing one generation.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Any woman may become a member of the Chicago Colony under the eligibility rules of the National Society as quoted above, provided she is acceptable to the Colony.

SEC. 2. Election to Membership. A candidate for membership shall be proposed by one member and vouched for by another, one of whom must have had personal acquaintance with the candidate for at least a year. Membership blanks shall be obtained from and returned to the Chairman of the Membership Committee. At the time the blank is returned the initiation fee and the dues for the current year shall be sent to the Assistant Treasurer. The filled blank shall be examined by the members of the Membership Committee, and upon the unanimous vote of the Committee for acceptance of the candidate, her application shall be presented to the Board of Managers, and unless three votes are cast against it in the board, the Chairman of the Membership Committee shall present it at the next regular meeting of the Colony, when it shall be voted upon by ballot, and unless five negative votes be cast, the candidate shall be declared elected, subject to the approval of the National Society. After acceptance by the National Society, the Chairman of the Membership Committee shall notify the candidate of her election.

SEC. 3. Membership by Transfer. The eligibility and standing of a member of another Colony applying for membership in the Chicago Colony by transfer shall be vouched for in writing by the President of the other colony.

No one shall be accepted by transfer until a copy of her original membership paper is in possession of the Membership Committee.

SEC. 4. Any member may become a non-resident member provided her permanent residence is 150 miles or more from the City of Chicago. Such members to pay annual dues of two dollars ($2.00). Such members shall not vote nor speak to a motion.

ARTICLE IV.

DUES.

SECTION 1. The initiation fee shall be one dollar.

SEC. 2. The annual dues shall be five dollars, payable in advance before the day of the annual meeting. Failure to prepay the dues shall deprive the member of the right to vote at the annual meeting. Membership of delinquent members shall be declared forfeited by the board, provided, notices have been mailed to delinquent members, thirty and sixty days after the annual meeting. A member may be reinstated by the board upon payment of all back dues. No resignation shall be accepted until after payment of dues for the current year. A member admitted by transfer must pay the annual dues, but no initiation fee.

SEC. 3. The financial year shall be from annual meeting to annual meeting.

ARTICLE V.

OFFICERS AND MANAGERS.

SECTION 1. Board of Managers. The Board of Managers shall consist of eight officers and seven managers. The Board shall have full control of the affairs and funds of the Society. The Board may fill vacancies in its own membership by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

SEC. 2. Officers. The officers shall be a President, a first and a second Vice President, Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer, an Assistant Treasurer and a Registrar. They shall hold office for one year or until the installation of their successors.

SEC. 3. Nominations and Election. Nomination and election of officers and managers shall take place at the annual meeting. The President shall appoint five tellers. A candidate for election shall not be a teller. Nominations shall be made only from the floor. Officers shall be nominated and elected one by one. Election shall be by ballot. A majority vote shall elect.

Managers shall be nominated from the floor. Five shall be voted for on one ballot and a plurality vote shall elect. In case of a tie the ballot must be re-cast.

ARTICLE VI.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Colony and of the Board, and shall be ex officio a member of every committee, and shall perform the duties usually pertaining to her office.

SEC. 2. The first and second Vice President in the order of her rank shall, in the absence of the President, assume her duties. The first Vice President shall be Chairman of the Membership Committee. The second Vice President shall be Chairman of the Social Committee.

SEC. 3. The Recording Secretary shall keep the minutes of the Colony and of the Board; shall have custody of the books and papers; shall keep a correct roll of membership and a list of all committees; shall sign all the written obligations of the Colony; shall give a report at the annual meeting and perform the duties usually devolving upon a Recording Secretary. She shall be Chairman of the Printing Committee.

SEC. 5. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held upon the Tuesday preceding the regular meeting of the Colony.

SEC. 6. Special meetings of the Colony may be called by the President or by the Board, and shall be called upon the written request of ten members of the Colony.

SEC. 7. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President, and shall be called by her, upon the written request of three members of the Board.

SEC. 8. Members present at business meetings of the Colony and of the Board shall constitute a quorum, provided written notice of such meetings has been sent to all the members.

ARTICLE VIII.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

SECTION. 1. The Chairman of all Standing Committees except as previously provided for, shall be appointed by the Board. Each Chairman shall form her own committee, from the membership, subject to the approval of the Board. The President may fill vacancies in chairmanships, occurring between meetings of the Board. A Vice Chairman of each committee shall be selected by the chairman, and approved by the Board. Said Vice Chairman to assume all obligations and duties of the chairman of the committee during her absence.

Every Standing Committee shall report to the Colony annually.

The Standing Committees of the Colony shall be as follows:

SEC. 2. A Membership Committee. Its chairman shall be the First Vice President. Its duties shall be as outlined in Article III.

SEC. 3. A Social Committee. Its chairman the second Vice President. It shall secure places of meetings for the Board and for the Colony and see that such things are provided as may be required. It shall attend to the admission of members and guests by ticket at all meetings whether business or social. It shall introduce strangers to the officers and members.

SEC. 4. A Programme Committee. It shall prepare programmes for the literary meetings of the Society. It shall consult with the hostess and with the Social Committee.

SEC. 5. A Ways and Means Committee. It shall devise and propose methods of increasing the funds of the Society.

SEC. 6. A Printing Committee. Its chairman shall be the Recording Secretary. It shall supervise all printing for the Colony; shall purchase all stationery, and other necessary supplies; shall give them out to officers and committees as required, and shall keep an itemized account of such supplies and of their disposition and present such account to the Board at each meeting.

SEC. 7. A Press Committee. It shall supply the press with notices of the meetings and entertainments of the Colony, shall receive the representatives of the press and give them such information as may be thought desirable.

SEC. 8. A Records Committee. Its chairman shall be the Corresponding Secretary. It shall take charge of the Colony's book containing its By-laws and secure therein the signatures of all members in the order of their Colony numbers. The committee shall report to the Board at each meeting the names of the new members who have entered their signatures.

It shall keep and continue the Colony's scrap-book, placing in it such material as the majority of the committees may consider worthy of preservation.

SEC. 9. An Auditing Committee. It shall audit all accounts of the Colony, before acceptance by the Board.

SEC. 10. A Philanthropy Committee. Its members shall be the President and Ex-Presidents of the Colony. Ten per cent of all annual dues shall be devoted to the purpose of this committee, and placed in a trust fund by the Treasurer, to be drawn upon only by order of this committee.

Each member is expected to contribute at least one dollar to the Philanthropy Fund.

ARTICLE IX.

GOVERNMENT.

All meetings shall be governed by "Roberts Rules of Order, Revised."

ARTICLE X.

Year Book

1918 - - 1919

Organized April 11th, 1907
